E-INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, APR 14 2018

The World Trade Organization (WTO) is the only global international organization dealing with the rules of trade between nations. At its heart are the WTO agreements, negotiated and signed by the bulk of the world's trading nations and ratified in their parliaments. The goal is to ensure that trade flows as smoothly, predictably and freely as possible. Taken from https://www.wto.org/english/thewto_e/thewto_e.htm

Dispute settlement

Resolving trade disputes is one of the WTO's core activity. A dispute arises when a member government believes another member government is violating an agreement or a commitment that it has made in the WTO.
